

: Ismail Abdel Rahim El Gizouli is an Energy & Environment Specialist with B.Sc. in. Mathematics. & Physics , from University of Khartoum, Sudan 1971 and M. Sc. in Operation Research & Statistics ,University of Aston in Birmingham U.K 1980

He has more than 37 years experience in Industry, Energy Planning & Strategies, Policy Studies, Demand Management, Information Systems, Bioenergy, Renewable Energy Technologies (RETS), Institutional Capacity Building, Environment, Climate Change Inventory, Vulnerability, Adaptation, Mitigation and Sustainable Development.

He started his professional career in 1971 with the Sudan Ministry of Industry. He joined the Ministry of Energy since 1980 till he became the Director of the National Energy Administration (the planning arm of the ministry) 1988-1992. He worked as a free lancer and conducted many consultancies for the African Development Bank, W.B., UNEP, FAO and African Energy Policy Research Network (AFREPRN). Since 1998 he joined The Higher Council for Environment and Natural Resources in Sudan as a consultant of all UNDP-Gov. joint Climate Change projects.

He participated in many international, regional and national conferences, meetings and symposiums in industry planning, sustainable development, energy, environment and climate change.

He has many published papers and one of 4 authors in two Energy Related books published by ZED Books England. He also contributed as Review Editor to many IPCC Reports mainly, safeguarding the Ozone Layer and the Global Climate System, Carbon dioxide Capture and Storage (Main Report and Technical Summary), WG3 4th Assessment Report (Mitigation to Climate Change) and 4th Assessment Synthesis Report.

He was IPCC Bureau Member 2002 to 2008, and re-elected in September 2008 for another round 2008 -2014.

He were the Vice Chair of the Facilitative Branch of the Compliance Committee of UNFCCC 2005- 2007 and he is the Chair of the Facilitative Branch and the Co chair of the Compliance Committee of UNFCCC 2007-2009