

Outreach Event at Kazan Federal University:
The IPCC Sixth Assessment Cycle and the Special Report on the Ocean and Cryosphere in a Changing Climate

5 March 2019

6.30 pm - 8.30 pm

Room 104, Nikolay Lobachevsky Scientific Library, Kazan

Provisional Programme

The event will be held mostly in English. Consecutive interpretation in Russian will be provided after each talk summarizing the presentations as well as during the Q&A session when necessary.

Introduction (6.30 – 6.35)

- Master of Ceremony and Moderator: Youba Sokona, IPCC Vice-Chair (2 min)
- Interpretation from English to Russian: Tatiana Dmitrieva, Deputy Head of Division, Russian Federal Service for Hydrometeorology and Environmental Monitoring (2 min)

Opening Session (6.35 - 6.50)

- Welcoming remarks: Svetlana Selivanovskaya, Director of the Institute of Ecology and Geography, Kazan Federal University (5 min)
- Opening remarks: Ko Barrett, IPCC Vice-Chair (5 min)
- Interpretation: Tatiana Dmitrieva (5 min)

The IPCC and how it works (6.50 - 7.00)

Sergey Semenov, Working Group II Vice-Chair (10 min)

Key messages from the Special Report on Global Warming of 1.5 °C (SR15) (7.00 - 7.20)

Valérie Masson-Delmotte, Working Group I Co-Chair (15 minutes)
(presentation summary in Russian by Tatiana Dmitrieva (3-5 min))

From the Fifth to the Sixth Assessment Cycle with focus on the Special Report on the Ocean and Cryosphere in a Changing Climate (SROCC) (7.20 - 7.40)

Hans-Otto Pörtner, Working Group II Co-Chair (15 minutes)
(presentation summary in Russian by Tatiana Dmitrieva (3-5 min))

How to be involved in the work of the IPCC (7.40 - 7.55)

Thelma Krug, IPCC Vice-Chair (10 minutes)
(presentation summary in Russian by Tatiana Dmitrieva (3-5 min))

Q&A and Conclusions by the Moderator (7.55 - 8.30)

Youba Sokona, IPCC Vice-Chair (5 min)
(interpretation from English to Russian: Tatiana Dmitrieva)